Level of Study for Rioja Students:

Period of Exchange:Program(s) or Department(s) open to Rioja exchange students:*Areas of Concentration:*Choice of Subjects:*Full-time Workload:

Cost of Programs: Registration for courses is free. No particular requisites are normally needed to attend courses.

Additional Fees:Application Requirements:

At least two months before arrival in Naples, you must inform the International Programmes Office (Ufficio Programmi Internazionali) and the Organizer of the exchange programme of your length of stay at the "Federico II" University using Application and Learning Agreement forms of your university or the appropriate form available from the University Internet site.

You must obtain the necessary health and insurance documents from the appropriate offices in your own country.

On arrival in Naples

You should go to the International Programmes office with 3 passport-type photos and a document attesting that you are an Erasmus/Socrates student from your University.

The office will give you three copies of letters of authorisation from the "Federico II" University. One copy should be given to your promoter; the second copy is your student identity document for access to University buildings and facilities reserved for students. The third copy should be submitted to appropriate office in the Questura in Naples (Police Headquarters – Via Galileo Ferraris) within eight days of your arrival in Naples. The EU's students can contact directly at the Questura: Ispettore Pigneri – Ufficio Immigrazione (Mo-Fr 9-12, ph. 0816064309).

It is students' personal responsibility to contact the Exchange Organizer in Naples.

Application Deadlines:Term dates for the academic year 2003/2004:

In the Faculties where teaching activity is organised in annual courses, they begin in the first half of November and finish in the second half of May.

In the Faculties where teaching activity is organised in semester courses, the courses held in the first semester begin in September/October and finish by the end of January, while courses held in the second semester begin in March and finish in the first half of June.

Christmas vacation: from 23 December to 6 January.

Easter vacation: from Ash Wednesday to the following Wednesday

Exam dates:Resist Exams:*Exams/Grading System:

In general, the exams consist of an oral interview, but in some cases there is also a written exam. The organisation of courses and the exam calendar are fixed autonomously by each Faculty. Therefore, it is advisable to consult the exchange Organisers for more detailed information. The student guide, consisting of a list and description of courses offered by each Faculty is published at the end of October and is distributed free in the Student Secretary Office in each Faculty. A copy is sent annually to the Erasmus Office in each of the University partners. Notices and information on timetables and course contents from each professor are displayed on the noticeboards in the departments and in the Deans' Offices
